

I signed up for the no call list because I did not want all those annoying calls. I'm sorry if the bankers think this is infringing on their potential business, but I strongly feel that we should have the right in our own home to be in control of who we allow in.. be it by phone or the front door. As I recall, this is still America, home of our unalienable rights!!